KASHRUS CERTIFICATION

This is to certify that the macarons produced at

Macaron

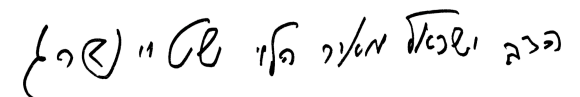

161 W 36th Street, New York, NY.

are Kosher. They feature a selection of dairy and Parve macarons. Parve is prepared using separate equipment and kept apart from the dairy. Ingredients which would require Rabbinical supervision bear the approval of recognized Orthodox organizations or rabbis. The macaron production facility is frequently monitored by Orthodox Rabbis to ensure that it maintains Kashrus according to Halacha. These Kosher macarons may be enjoyed with confidence in the Kashrus. They are not for Passover consumption. This certification applies only to the macarons prepackaged for take-out, or delivered directly by the Macaron bakery.
